GILBERT, KEITH DWAYNE
California

Group Record

Member of the Minutemen
Known to have had dealings with Juan Erquiaga, owner of an armament factory
Wanted for the theft of 1800 lbs of explosives which were recovered from his residence along with a cache of weapons and a supply of Minutemen literature (Attorney General of California, Para-Military Organizations in California, MM F-Library Shelf)

Seeking Gilbert for questioning about a telephone threat against the life of Martin Luther King the same day the dynamite was stolen from the Sylmar storage magazine.
Is convicted of an unprovoked club and gun atack on a Negro motorist at the intersection of Sunset and LaBrea in Hollywood, September, 1964 (KLAC special report; Hotbed of Hatred; F-California)

With minuteman Robert R. Romero, ran the Los Angeles Ordnance Depot in Los Angeles explosives store, until arrested and convicted of stealing explosives, June 1[illegible]
(Van Nuys, Calif., News, June 16, 1968) (F. Minutemen)